Superstudio

description

The small T02 table, like the T01, was designed by Superstudio to complete the Sofo seat project. It consists of a laminated top resting on four spherically shaped legs. It is the same size as the Sofo armchair, and this helps to emphasize the modular component of the project. Also, the decision to use pink as the color of the top makes it an item «which carries a bit of joie de vivre», as Adolfo Natalini put it. Adolfo Natalini and Cristiano Toraldo di Francia chose it for one of their more iconic self-portraits.
